Description

“Enterijer Jankovic“ is the company with European type of management based in Novi Sad - Serbia that provides wide range of services such as: manufacture of complete interiors, furniture and accessories, construction joinery, contractor’s services of highest quality on a “Turnkey” system and support in cooperation in the field of furniture design, furnishing, lighting and interior for any surroundings - commercial, corporate, private or residential. Due to the individual approach in production, Enterijer Jankovic is able to respond to the widest range of requests in terms of design, shape and dimensions of the desired product, regardless whether you need a piece of furniture, doors, windows or completely equipped and furnished high-class facility. We deal with projects such as hotels and restaurants as well as commercial projects as offices, public spaces and lobbies. Orientation towards engineering is a significant innovation comparing to classic interior design and clear evidence that our philosophy of constant improvement keeps us in leading position in this domain.
